Columbus Bank Officials Not Frightened by a Damage Suit. special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 22 .- By the filing of the suit in the Circuit Court here this morning. by James S. Brown against the First National Bank for $35,000, considerable stir was created in legal circles. The suit brings up the defalcation of young William Schriber, at one time a confidential book-keeper there. The bank officials deny that Brown has any claim on them, and say that six months before the arrest of Schriber Brown had been employed to go to Detroit and, if possible, secure the arrest of the fugitive. He made the trip, but returned with the word, so they say, that it was proceed any further Brown, howmatter. claimed that he left the matter with a Detroit detective, who afteraffirm that a brother of a girl whom Schriber visited gave him away to another detective, who afterwards arrested and returned with him here.

Chance for a Good Druggist, Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

YORKTOWN, Sept. 22,-This growing gas town is nattered with the prospects of many new enterprises about to be launched forth. The Western Improvement Company sent its representative here to investigate the opportunity for employment of capital, and $100,000 worth of stock has lately been taken by capitalists who desire to build factories and mills. Options for gas have been obtained on much desirable land, and the boom may be expected to set in any day. The merchants are preparing for an increased population, and everywhere things are brightening. A magnificent hotel will be built near Pine lake, and boat-houses for pleasure parties put up. Yorktown, with its three hundred inhabitants, is a good location for a drug store, as there is not one in the place. A first-class druggist is certainly in demand.

DePauw School of Music, Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENCASTLE, Sept. 22 .- The opening concert of the DePanw School of Music took place to-night at Meharry Hall. It served as the occasion for the introduction of the two distinguished artists who have lately been added to the corps of instructors. The hearty applause that greeted the solo-ists testified the warmth of appreciation. The recital was the 352d of the school, and was participated in by the following named Francein Alma S. T. Dahl, soprano; Miss Kate S. Hammond, contralto; Miss Susi G. Killy, pianist; Fraulein Zhekla Burmeister, pianist; Miss Rosa A. Marquis, violinist; Miss Gertrude Holvoke French, harpist; Miss Anna Allen Smith, accompanist. The whole was under the direction of James H. Howe, dean of the school. Several very pleasing numbers were rendered.

Rennion of the Thirty-Fourth.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PENDLETON, Sept. 22 .- The Thirty-fourth Indiana Infantry is holding its ninth annual reunion here. The town is full of boys in bine, and everything is being done to make their visit pleasant. The day has been devoted to registering names, assigning places of entertainment, and renewing old acquaintances. A camp-fire was held at the new I. O. O. F. Hall to-night, during which many interesting speakers took part. The business meeting will be held to-morrow. Among the numerous attractions is the presence of William Smith, of Huntington, a member of the Thirty-fourth. He left the army at its close weighing 135 pounds. He now weighs 450 pounds and enjoys excellent health. Capt. O. L. Walker, of Missouri, president of the association, is unable to be present.

Arrested for Barn-Burning.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.-The arrest of William Dant, a tough character, for the burning of the barn of Dr. E. D. Millis, four weeks ago, has aroused the farmers of Daviess county to an alarming degree. So great has been their losses during the past two years that the arrest of a man on whom the least suspicion lies creates the most intense feeling against him. In Dant's case there is little reason to believe him innocent. He was discovered at the barn shortly after the fire was seen. When accused Dant took advantage of the delay in getting a warrant for his arrest and left the State. He was traced to Nebraska and there arrested a few days ago and returned to Washington, where he is in iail. Some to Washington, where he is in jail. Some fears are entertained about his safety.

Life of Greenberry Ward Ended. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ROCKVILLE, Sept. 22. - Greenberry Ward. the next oldest man in the county, died vesterday afternoon. He was born in Woodford county, Kentucky, Sept. 1, 1800. He removed to Indiana in 1821, and lived in Fayette county until 1826, when he came to Parke county and settled in the woods four miles south of Ro kville. The Indians were still here when he came. In 1832 he bought 250 acres of choice land two miles west of this place, and resided there up to the time of his death. From 1847 to 1870 he was engaged in the mercantile business with his son-in-law, Mr. William H. Harding. Sept. 5, 1824, he married Miss Louisa Edwards, with whom he lived sixty-eight years, she having died about eleven months

Stock Killed by Miscreants.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SPENCER, Sept. 22. - For a period of two years the stock farms near Gosport have lost valuable animals from being potsoned. Dr. Smith recently lost a valuable horse and had a fine colt ruined by a knife. Thomas Lukenbill is also a loser. Captain John Welch seems to be the special victim of the fiends. His stock is being systematically killed. It has come to such a pass that he has shipped stock away for fear of WABASH, Sept. 22.-The Cincinnati, Wabash & Michigan road had another wreck last night, this time at North Marion. Train No. 4, south-bound, running at high speed, dashed into the round-house switch, which had been left open and hit the switch-engine, which stood in the house. The dumny was knocked through the wall. Both locomotives were considerably damaged and the passengers were somewhat shaken up, but no one was injured serious-

Will Go to Prison Again.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. VINCENNES, Sept. 22.-Yesterday Thomas Hoffman, who had just finished a term of two years in the Prison South for grand larceny, was again sentenced for two years for burglarizing the store of Ritterskamp & Co. When captured the first time in his home, it was found that he had converted his room into a veritable arsenal. Many stolen goods were found concealed therein behind the wall-paper and in other unsuspected places. The court at the same time sentenced William Holcomb for forgery.

IT WAS SHE THAT PROPOSED

Edwin T. Searles Tells How He Came to Wed Mrs. Hopkins and Her Millions.

She Was Twenty-One Years His Senior, and Popped the Question, and He Accepted Her for Love and Money-The Will Contest.

SALEM, Mass., Sept. 22 .- The hearing in the Searles will case was opened in the Probate Court this morning. William M. Dodge testified to drawing the will of Mrs. Searles. It was read to her and she signed it after declaring that it expressed her wishes. She was to all appearance of sound mind. Witness mentioned the drawing of another will and the court on motion ordered it produced. Incidental to the request it was stated that Timothy Hopkins would not be conceded the right to appear as an adopted son. Mr. Burleigh proceeded to cross-examine witnesses, his main point being the fact that the name "Timothy Hopkins" was written in apparently a different ink in a blank space left for the name. Mr. Dodge stated that his impression was that he left the space until he got to Methuen. as he was not sure whether there was a middle mitial. He had been instructed to draw a will leaving all the property to Mr. Searles, and as his duty as a lawyer required, he inserted the section regarding the omission of the name of Timothy Hopkins. He called the special attention of Mrs. Searles and told her he could modify it if she desired, but she stated that it expressed her wishes, and it was executed. William M. Thornton, another witness to the will, corroborated the last witness's statement. Cross-examination showed that witness could not read a single word. William O. Morris, the third witness to the will, corroborated the previous witnesses, as to the execution of the two wills. He had also witnessed a will for Mr. Searles since the death of Mrs. Searles. This closed the case for the executors.

Mr. Burleigh asked the executors to produce a will of Mary F. S. Searles dated in November, 1887, and Judge Harmon granted the request. Mr. Burleigh stated that the position of the contestants was, first, that there was no sufficient attestation of the will; second, that the will was procured by undue influence and fraud on the part of Edward F. Searles and some confederates, and third, that testatrix was not of sound and disposing mind at the time the will was made.

MRS. HOPKINS PROPOSED MARRIAGE. Mr. Burleigh then called Edward F. Searles to the witness-stand. He first met Mrs. Hopkins in San Francisco, in March. 1883, going to her house with a letter of introduction to look over her house; met her there several times, going on excursions into the country twice with her and her daughter-in-law. He then detailed his acquaintance and visits to Mrs. Hopkins. quaintance and visits to Mrs. Hopkins.

The first proposition of marriage between the two came from Mrs. Hopkins, in New York, in the fall of 1883. He did not assent to it for a year, but in December, 1884, he entertained the proposition. He knew at the time that Mrs. Hopkins was born in 1820 and was twenty one years his senior, but had never previously proposed marriage to anyone. Witness could not well help knowing that Mrs. Hopkins was a woman of large means. He delayed the proposition of marriage to give her a chance to be sure she was satisfied, and after he entertained it delayed marriage for three to be sure she was satisfied, and after he entertained it delayed marriage for three years. In the spring of 1886 he went to Florida, as the guest of Mrs. Hopkins, in her private car. She was accompanied by Miss Cass, of Great Barrington. Witness, from 1885 to 1887, was superintending the building of Mrs Hopkins's house at Great Barrington. He had understood that the son Timothy, in connection with the railroad people, managed her affairs, and had been told by Mrs. Hopkins that Timothy had objected to the marriage, but had cherished no ill-will toward him for it. The agreement of marriage was entered into in September, 1887, on witness's part because he greatly admired her.

In reply to a question, he said he married because he greatly admired her.

In reply to a question, he said he married her for all she had—both loss and money—but should never have married her for money alone. Did not know of the will made the day of the marriage, Nov. 8, 1887, until after her death. Did not think it it was intentionally made behind his back. A marriage contract made at the same time was also put in conveying by Mrs. Hopkins to E. Stillman, as trustee, for the benefit of Edward F. Searles. after the marriage, the mansion in San Francisco, improved and unimproved land in Sacramento; mountain lands in Summit, Soda Springs, Cal.; red-wood and timberlands on the Coast range, two parcels of quarry lands, the Great Barrington property, and four lots on Ninth street, New York. This contract was canceled July 16, 1888. The hearing was here adjourned to to-morrow at 9:45 A. M.

George Barker Arrested for Attempted Train-Wrecking Near Catlin Saturday Night.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DANVILLE, Ill., Sept. 22.-Last Saturday night the Wabash train, due here at 12:25 A. M., struck a pile of ties on the track about one and a half mile this side of Catlin, where there is a small bridge over a ravine. The train was not derailed and the facts were reported to headquarters by the engineer. Detective Ballard was assigned the duty of finding the miscreant who came so hear causing a terrible loss of life, arriving in Tilton at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. At 6 o'clock last night he had fastened the guilt on George Barker, son of Richard Barker, of Catlin, and arrested him as he was about to make his escape. When the detective and his prisoner arrived at Tilton, Barker made a confession, but gave no reason for his action save only but gave no reason for his action save only

Moore and wife, Judge Clifford to-day issued a writ for her production in court on Thursday. Carlin is a laborer in the Illinots steel-works, and his wifers the daughter of a wealthy Cleveland manufacturer, who recently died, leaving her a legacy of $200,000. Mr. Moore says the woman came to his house a few days ago, suffering from typhoid fever; that Carlin had deserted her and neglected her, and that his only object in desiring to see her is to extort money from her to spend in drink. Carlin dentes this, and says Moore is endeavoring to get this, and says Moore is endeavoring to get the management of his wife's property. He says his wife comes of the Hurlbert family of Cleveland, and that, at the time of his marriage to her, she was the widow of Mr. Watson, a St. Louis from man. The Car-lins formerly lived in Pittsburg. Mrs. Carlin will receive the legacy in November, when her son becomes of age.
